

Grace in a Ruined Age

(To the tune of "Amazing Grace")

By: Lord Redbeard 2024

Verse 1

This darkened age of fractured hearts,
Where truth and love grow dim,
Where vows are cast and homes undone,
And light is stained by sin.

Verse 2

We walk through ruins of our pride,
With wounds we cannot hide;
Both sons and daughters wander lost,
From covenant cast aside.

Verse 3

Yet still the Lord of mercy reigns,
Abounding rich in grace;
He calls the broken, scarred, ashamed,
To seek His holy face.

Verse 4

No past so torn He cannot mend,
No soul too far to save;
The humble heart that bows to Him
Finds mercy from the grave.

Verse 5

He forms again what sin has marred,
Restores what was undone;

He builds a house on ordered truth,
With Christ the Cornerstone.

Verse 6

The man who leads with steadfast hand,
In patience firm and mild,
Reflects the Shepherd of our souls,
Who gathers every child.

Verse 7

The woman turning back to God
Finds honor in His will;
In faith renewed and spirit cleansed,
Her calling stands made still.

Verse 8

O grace that heals the shattered heart,
And lifts the bowed-down head;
In mercy You restore our homes,
Where once all hope seemed dead.

Verse 9

Through many storms and faithless years,
Your promise still remains;
That those who yield and trust Your Word
Shall rise from sin's deep chains.

Verse 10

When Christ returns in righteous might,
And sets all order right,
Redeemed and purified we'll stand
In everlasting light.
