

Week 5: The Life of Noah - Righteousness in a Wicked World

A Sabbath Family Bible Study

 Introduction

The story of Noah is a powerful account of God's justice, mercy, and faithfulness in the midst of overwhelming wickedness. Noah lived during a time when humanity had rejected God's ways so completely that violence, corruption, and evil dominated every aspect of society. Even in such darkness, God preserved a faithful remnant.

Noah's life teaches us that righteousness is possible even when everyone around us chooses rebellion. He did not follow the crowd, compromise, or abandon God's commandments. Instead, he walked with God, trusted His warnings, and obeyed His instructions even when they seemed strange to the world around him.

Just as Noah and his family found refuge from God's judgment inside the ark, believers today find refuge in Jesus Christ, the only safe shelter from the judgment to come. Noah's obedience preserved his household and demonstrated the importance of faithful spiritual leadership within the family.

This week reminds us that while cultures change, human nature remains the same. Like Noah's generation, our world is marked by violence, corruption, and rebellion against God. However, God still calls His people to live differently. Through Noah's example, we learn how to walk faithfully with God, lead our families with courage, and remain steadfast even when righteousness is unpopular.

Scripture Reading

(Genesis 6:5–22; 7:1; Hebrews 11:7, Psalm)

Genesis 6:5–7

5 “And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.”

6 “And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.”

7 “And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.”

Commentary:

The world before the flood was saturated in sin. Wickedness was constant. It corrupted not only outward actions but even inward thoughts. This verse reflects the spiritual climate Noah was surrounded by: total depravity. This mirrors our own age, perverse imaginations, constant rebellion, and widespread violence.

Genesis 6:8

8 "But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD."

Commentary:

Amidst global corruption, one man found grace. God always preserves a remnant. Noah was not perfect, but he was faithful. Grace is not earned by works, but it leads to obedience. Noah was a man who walked differently from his peers because he walked with God.

Genesis 6:9

9 "Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God."

10: "And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth."

11: "The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence."

12: "And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth."

Commentary:

To be "just" means to be righteous, lawful in conduct, upright in heart. To be "perfect in his generations" means that Noah was morally pure and undiluted by the wickedness around him, even genetically untainted (see also Genesis 6:2–4). "Walked with God" is covenantal language. Like Enoch before him, Noah lived in daily communion with God, refusing to walk with the world.

Genesis 6:13

13 "And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth."

14: "Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch."

15: "And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits."

16: “A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.”

17: “And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.”

18: “But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.”

19: “And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.”

20: “Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.”

21: “And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.”

Commentary:

God doesn't merely judge, but provides a way of salvation. The ark is a type of Christ: the only refuge from divine wrath. Noah's task was to build according to God's instructions. True faith works with hammer in hand!

Genesis 6:22

22 “Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.”

Commentary:

Noah's faith was proven by total obedience. He didn't delay, negotiate, or alter God's commands. In a disobedient generation, Noah's life was marked by complete submission to the Word of the Lord. His actions were a rebuke to a rebellious world.

Genesis 7:1

1 “And the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.”

Commentary:

God's covenant with Noah extended to his household. Noah's righteousness brought protection not only to himself but to his wife, his sons, and his sons' wives. Because God blesses headship and honors covenantal order.

Hebrews 11:7

7 "By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet... prepared an ark to the saving of his house..."

Commentary:

Faith sees what the world cannot. Noah built for 120 years with no rain in sight. His life was a living sermon of judgment and salvation. His faith condemned the world and proved him an heir of righteousness. His example teaches us to prepare our households in obedience to God's warnings, regardless of cultural mockery.

Discussion Questions for All Ages

Young Children:

- Who was Noah?
- What did God tell Noah to build?
- Why did Noah obey God?

Older Children & Teens:

- What made Noah different from everyone else in his time?
- How was the ark like Jesus?
- Why is it sometimes hard to obey God when others don't?

Adults:

- What parallels do you see between Noah's world and our own?

- How can you build an “ark” for your family today, spiritually and practically?
 - What does it mean to walk with God while the world walks in darkness?

Psalm Reading - Psalm 1:1–3

1: “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.”

2: “But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.”

3: “And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Commentary:

Noah was the blessed man who refused to walk with the wicked. This Psalm beautifully reflects the life Noah lived, rooted in righteousness, fruitful, and unmoved by corruption.

Hymn: “Trust & Obey”

(by John H. Sammis, 1887)

*When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will, He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.*

Refrain:

*Trust and obey, for there’s no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.*

*Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies,
But His smile quickly drives it away;*

*Not a doubt or a fear, not a sigh or a tear,
Can abide while we trust and obey.*

*Not a burden we bear, not a sorrow we share,
But our toil He doth richly repay;
Not a grief or a loss, not a frown or a cross,
But is blessed if we trust and obey.*

*But we never can prove the delights of His love
Until all on the altar we lay;
For the favor He shows, for the joy He bestows,
Are for them who will trust and obey.*

*Then in fellowship sweet we will sit at His feet,
Or we'll walk by His side in the way;
What He says we will do, where He sends we will go;
Never fear, only trust and obey.*

This hymn perfectly captures the spirit of Noah's life. He trusted God's warning and obeyed completely, no matter how strange it looked to others.

Family Application Points

1. Live Differently:

Encourage each family member to embrace being different from the world. Righteousness may be lonely, but it is never unnoticed by God.

2. Build Your Ark:

As Noah built a literal ark, fathers today must build spiritual arks, homes of obedience, worship, and protection. Discuss what structures and habits need to be built or repaired in your home.

3. Prepare for Judgment:

Like Noah, our families must live in light of coming judgment. Teach your children that God's mercy delays wrath, but it does not ignore sin forever.

4. Honor Obedient Headship:

Noah's entire household was saved because of his righteousness. This affirms the role of godly men as protectors, providers, and spiritual leaders in times of crisis.

5. Daily Walk with God:

Teach your household that righteousness isn't a one-time act, it's a walk. Encourage daily prayer, Scripture reading, and personal holiness.

A Sabbath Feast Prayer: (Used later when the Sabbath Meal is Ready)

“Heavenly Father, we thank You for Your Sabbath, a holy day of rest, joy, and renewal. As we partake in this meal, may our hearts be lifted in gratitude for Your provision and peace. Let this table reflect the peace of Your Kingdom and the love that binds our household together in Christ. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

Closing Prayer

Righteous Father, we thank You for the example of Noah, who walked with You in the midst of corruption. Teach us to live as he did; with obedient faith, reverent fear, and steadfast hope. Help our homes to be like arks in the midst of a drowning culture, places of safety, worship, and preparation. Give us courage to stand apart, strength to build according to Your Word, and grace to lead our families into salvation through Christ, our true Ark. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
